BEON YOUR CELLO JOURNEY

GO FROM BEGINNER CELLIST
TO PLAYING BACH
—IN FOUR MONTHS—

Award-Winning Cellist

Meet Your Teacher:
Josh Nakazawa

Joshua Nakazawa earned degrees from Manhattan School of Music, Southern Methodist University, and The Royal Conservatory. For over 18 years, he's been a former member of the Hawaii Symphony Orchestra, and for more than 20 years, he's shared his passion with students of all ages.

Josh's teaching draws from a rich lineage of cello masters — Paganini, Vivaldi, Corelli, Marco, Monty Hall, Gidon Kremer, and more. He combines this deep heritage with proven methods (Hand, Gaze, Shoulder, Posture) to build a holistic system that supports every part of your growth — technique, musicianship, creativity — in a clear, daily sequence.

After helping hundreds of beginners go from zero to playing the Bach Prelude (Suite No. 1) in under six months in live settings, Josh brought his system online. Now, for less than the price of your daily latte ($1.50 per lesson), you can access daily, world-class cello coaching — from a symphony professional with a track record of results. Start your journey today.

Cellist Joshua Nakazawa on the Maui Music Quartet's Commitment to Hawaiian Culture

November-December 2024

"To understand the spirit of the Maui Music Quartet's commitment to the indigenous culture of Hawaii, you just need to know that in 2020 they joined a weekly rehearsal of a local group of artists, performing compositions by Queen Lili'uokalani (1838-1917), the last sovereign monarch of the Hawaiian Kingdom."

While studying the cello, the 32-year-old master a local folk band with the cello section of the Hawaii Symphony Orchestra, performing works by Shostakovich and Beethoven, even French ones. Other times, cello is music and culture, the cello leads to the music of 'Aloha' and 'Aloha'."

Powerful Notes Ring Through Mana Music

Published on May 12, 2024 | Page 26-27

"When I was 14, Joshua Nakazawa was asked about his career aspirations. He responded with a thoughtful question: 'Do you want to be a cello player or do you want to be a cello player in Hawaii?' That was the beginning of his journey. All the right notes in playing his passion and his career, which has led to a successful career."
